

C. L. SHINE NOMINEE OF THE ANTI-PRIMARY PARTY

WILL OPPOSE THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE FOR THE MAYORALTY IN THE GENERAL ELECTION. MEETING HELD IN C. K. OF A. HALL LAST NIGHT FAIRLY WELL ATTENDED.

The Citizens Good Government League—the Anti-White Primary organization—held another meeting last night. The meeting convened about 8 o'clock in the hall of the C. K. of A., instead of at the negro dance hall on Railroad street, where the League was organized. There were present possibly 150 persons. Some were enthusiastic, others were not. A large number were merely spectators.

The result of the meeting was the nomination of Hon. C. L. Shine as the head of the anti-primary ticket. Speeches were made, and at times, there was applause, especially when the nominee of the anti-primary ticket advanced and spoke.

Shortly after 7 o'clock Weyer's band began to play. Half an hour was consumed, to the edification of numerous small boys and bluejackets, gathered at the corner of Government and Palafox streets. Later the musicians proceeded to march to the hall. The small boys proceeded to follow—two Journal reporters came next, followed by "Buddie" Tourant. When the hall was reached the band enlightened things, rendering some good music.

Early Crowd Small.
There were then present possibly twenty-five persons. Quite a number of colored persons were on the street, evidently wondering what would occur in the meeting in which the colored voter is very much interested. They left later, possibly because an invitation was not extended them to participate.

Shortly before 8 o'clock, the "Big Mayor" and Johnny Brosnahan, marched majestically up the aisle to the speakers stand. Both took front seats and applauded liberally during the performance.

Before Dr. Frank G. Renshaw, the chairman, called the meeting to order, there had assembled possibly 150 persons, quite a number of whom were visitors. Among the new faces seen in the assembly were J. Simpson, Reese, Mansfield Moreno, "Dad" Senior, Johnny Brosnahan, Cade Shackelford, Sam Rosenau, "Buddie" Tourant, A. McD. Moyer, Pat McHugh, Wm. R. Johnson, Thos. F. Neel, Jos. Brown, A. D. Alfrey and quite a few others. In addition to those who were instructed to be present.

Came to the Front.
When the chairman rapped for order those assembled came forward—as near the platform as possible—and took seats. The regular order of proceedings ensued. The chairman advanced and in that manner peculiarly his own, announced that a committee whose names had not been made public, was ready to report. Secretary Ward then arose and read the report.

The committee had nominated for the position of mayor Hon. C. L. Shine, the present city clerk. There was applause. The nominee of the Anti-Primary party, once known as a "Katsenjammer Kid," was then escorted to the platform and made his speech—he did it well, and as one of the spectators remarked, must have studied it considerably. When he concluded he was loudly applauded, the band played rag time and several of those on the front row even got up enough enthusiasm to smile. The "Big Mayor" went so far as to laugh outright. Then the band played some more, and other orators were introduced by the chairman.

Mr. Shine, the nominee for mayor, was announced by Dr. Renshaw with a little more than the usual amount of fulsome flattery and the nominee, after he had recovered from a severe attack of blushing, addressed the crowd as follows:

C. L. Shine.
Mr. Chairman, and members of the Good Citizens' League: I am overcome as my friend Dr. Renshaw says, with the kind reception that I have received to-night and I am grateful to him for his kind words.

When I received an invitation from your committee to become your candidate for the important office of mayor of this city I felt that I had received a compliment, the like of which comes to a man but seldom in a lifetime. Because, among other reasons, the invitation was freely and voluntarily from a committee of the people of Pensacola who are obligated to no politician. (Applause.)

I have no axes to grind and I stand out, as it were, in the open, free to think, to act and to vote as I deem it proper on the sixth day of June for the best interests and welfare of the city of Pensacola. (Applause.)

Another reason was that I well appreciate the importance of the office and I felt that these citizens, of whom I now speak, are capable of appreciating and did appreciate it themselves. Further, it is but natural that I should heartily appreciate the confidence that you have shown in me.

And now, in accepting your invitation to become your candidate for mayor of this city I wish you to understand that I appreciate and have a full and free knowledge of the responsibilities that will devolve upon me in the event of my election. I am all the more familiar with these responsibilities having held the office of city clerk for the past two years under the Hon. T. E. Welles, (applause) and you will pardon me, gentlemen, if I just here take the opportunity to congratulate him upon the manner that he has always met this responsibility and upon the general success of his administration.

And now I wish to assure you, gentlemen, that there is no man who has been elected, interests nearer to his heart, than I and I promise you that if we are successful—and from the confident and determined looks upon your faces to-night I apprehend that we will be—(applause) I promise you that I will always do my duty as I see it, fearlessly and impartially, standing, as I will, upon the following platform:

First—A good and progressive municipal administration.

Second—A continuation of public improvements.

Third, and last—A square deal for every man. (Applause.)

I thank you for the honor. (Applause.)

R. Pope Reese.

Dr. Renshaw next introduced R. Pope Reese who talked at considerable length upon the legal phases of the primary question. He characterized the action of the county committee in appointing the city committee as irregular and illegal and said that, while he was in favor of the primary system he was emphatically opposed to the present movement and would fight it to a finish, or words to that effect.

Hon. T. E. Welles.

Hon. T. E. Welles, mayor of Pensacola, was next introduced and arraigned the primary in his usual vigorous style. He paid his compliments to one of The Journal representatives present, calling upon him to verify certain statements the speaker had previously made, and thereby eliciting considerable laughter. Mr. Welles paid a glowing tribute to the integrity and ability of Mr. Shine, resented an alleged statement to the effect that the anti-primary crowd was composed of "riff raff," and said he hoped the present campaign would be free from mud slinging and personal vituperation in every respect. At the close of his address he was heartily applauded.

O. M. Pryor next made a sort of address, endorsing the anti-primary movement, after which Dr. Renshaw surrendered the chair to him and he took his place as master of ceremonies.

Other Speakers.

Others who spoke, all in endorsement of the anti-primary move, were: N. McK. Oertling, W. L. Moyer, Mansfield Moreno, B. L. Gladden, F. B. Ratcliffe, E. Mead Wilson, Monroe Campbell, Simpson, Reese, Cade Shackelford and Geo. T. Morgan. Mr. Morgan took occasion to characterize the proceedings incident to the appointment of the city committee as Mr. Reilly's "chicanery" and intimated that the proceedings were in furtherance of Mr. Reilly's "little private plans."

It was voted that a committee be appointed by the present standing committee to solicit the wherewith to conduct the campaign, but the appointments were not made.

The meeting adjourned subject to call of the chairman.

William Shaffer, a brakeman of Dennison, Ohio, was confined to his bed for several weeks with inflammation rheumatism. "I used many remedies," he says. "Finally I sent to McCaw's drug store for a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, at which time I was unable to use hand or foot, and in one week's time was able to go to work as happy as a clam." For sale by all druggists.

Nashville, March 27.—A dispatch from Clarksville, Tenn., says a wreck on the Louisville and Nashville railroad in which four lives were lost and much valuable railroad property destroyed occurred just across the river from that place at 12:45 this morning. A Maryland Baptism.

Congressman Mudd, of Maryland, tells of a baptism in a village in the black belt of that state. "What is the name?" asked the minister of the child's father. "John James George Washington Fitzhugh Lee Blaine Harrison Smith," answered the father. The old minister jotted down the name walking to the baptismal font, a crockery wash basin, and said to the janitor: "Mose, get some more water. There isn't half enough to baptize this child if we have to take in all his names." —Tampa Herald.

A Farcial Performance.

There was concluded at the national capital, last week, after a several weeks' run, the roaring farce, JUSTICE JU JITSUED or the REPUBLICAN REWARD.

This proved to be one of the most remarkable performances of modern times, as contrary to all rules of romance, the wrong doer came out ahead and was justified and rewarded for his crimes.

A beautiful love story ran through the piece—love of other people's money—together with a touch of animosity in high places.

It is announced that the leading character of the farce will soon visit the place where his crimes were committed, and no doubt the people will be "de-light-ed" to see him.—Milton Index.

TERSELY TOLD.

Mrs. Lola Hopkins Powell, of Baltimore, Md., niece of Mrs. Chas. Evans, is a guest at the Manhattan Hotel.

The Orioles and a picked team from the torpedo boat destroyer Whipple, played a good game of baseball at Palmetto Beach Sunday afternoon, which resulted in a victory for the Orioles by the score of 8 to 1.

Owing to a misunderstanding the date for the wrestling match between "Kid" Eaton and Ed Taylor, has been changed from March 31st to April 2nd, when the two men will meet for the second time in the local opera house.

Jack Hooton returned yesterday from a trip to a number of prominent cities, where he went to purchase an up-to-date stock of drugs and fixtures for a drug store, which he will shortly open at the corner of Palafox and Romana streets.

E. Morta has been elected a delegate to represent the local branch of the Catholic Knights of America at the coming meeting of the head order, which is to convene at an early date. This action was taken at a meeting held Sunday night. Dan Murphy was chosen as alternate.

The basketball team of the torpedo boat destroyer Worden, has challenged the team representing the Pensacola Classical School and it is very probable that a game will be arranged in the near future. These two teams played last year, resulting in a victory for the Classical School boys.

Alexander Stoddard, of New York, who usually spends a few weeks during the spring at the beautiful Pensacola place, is in the city and is very warmly greeted by his numerous friends. Mr. Stoddard has not been in the best of health recently, but he hopes to be himself again before leaving Pensacola.

The police are proceeding against the vagrants in a most vigorous manner, and it is probable that within a short time the large number of strangers who have been flocking into the city for several days past on account of the arrival of the war ships, will be thinned out to a considerable extent. While only a few arrests have been made the strangers have been given an intimation that it would be best for them to leave the city within a few hours, and as a rule they have taken the hint.

Don't be satisfied with "good enough." Demand Blue Ribbon lemon and vanilla extracts and have the "BEST EVER MADE."
